Sponsored by: Crossroads Hotel, Lisa Dees, Camstart Pharmacy, Ladies Show Auxiliary, Narrabri Lion's Club, Narrabri Lioness Club, Allan Barnes Jewellers, McInnes Clothing, Barraket's, Liz's Gift and Kitchenware, Baguleys Jewellers, NuYu, Lady Gothique, Logan & Co, Lush Hair and Nails, Blooms on Maitland.

Conditions:

We are looking to find a young lady to be an Ambassador for our local show, community and for young women of rural NSW.

It is not a beauty pageant. The Competition encourages the participation and subsequent awareness of rural women's contribution and involvement in both local communities and rural NSW as a whole.

Qualities desired are poise, personality, speech, grooming, manners, presentation, general knowledge (local, general and international) and an interest in representing the show movement and the local area.

- The showgirl competition is run in conjunction with The Land, The Royal Agricultural Society and Agricultural Societies Council of NSW.
- Entrants must reside, be educated, or work within NSW for at least three months prior to the local showgirl competition to qualify to compete within the state.
- Entrants must be women aged from 18 to 24 years as at May 1st in the year of the state final (2019 for this year's Show).
- The Narrabri winner is eligible to compete at the Zone 4 judging in February 2019 which decides two finalists for the Royal Easter Show 2019. (Except for Junior)
- The 2019 Zone 4 Final will be held in Narrabri!!
- Judging is by interview with a panel of three judges prior to the show.

Winner and runner up will be announced at the official Show Opening on Friday May 4th 2018.

The Senior Showgirl winner will attend a department weekend in Glen Innes in 2019, in preparation for Zone 4 judging.

Great prizes can be won at local level. State level prizes include jewellery, cash prizes and travel across the State to attend shows and other functions and events.
